- 14.1 Each Party shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other Party and its respective officers, directors, employees, agents and permitted assigns from and against all claims, proceedings, actions, judgments, costs, damages and all related expenses in connection with: personal or bodily injury, illness or death of any person caused by the Party's negligent acts or omissions; damage to or the loss of use of tangible, personal or real property, to the extent that such injury or damage arises from the negligence of or breach of this Agreement by the indemnifying Party, any of its personnel or sub-contractor; claims for infringement, misuse, exploitation or misappropriation of any third-party Intellectual Property rights or breach of confidentiality caused by the indemnifying Party, any of its personnel or sub-contractor; imposition or claims by Government regulators or agencies for fines, penalties, sanctions or other remedies arising from or in connection with the Party's failure to comply with its regulatory obligations or on account of default of its tax obligations; or claims on account of any fraud, wilful misconduct, gross negligence, misrepresentation, breach of statutory duty.
- 14.2 The indemnified Party agrees to: (a) notify the indemnifying Party promptly upon becoming aware (and in any event within thirty (30) Days of any claim); (b) make no admissions or statements without the indemnifying Party's consent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed); (c) reserve for the indemnifying Party the right if it chooses to take exclusive control of the litigation and to conduct/settle litigation and negotiations as the indemnifying Party sees fit (subject to keeping the indemnified Party reasonably informed) and provided that the indemnifying Party's actions in this regard do not result in any expenses for the indemnified Party which it has not previously authorised; (d) give the indemnifying Party, at the indemnifying Party's cost, such assistance as may be reasonably required; (e) preserve and not waive legal professional or any other privilege attaching to any of the records, documents, or other information in relation to such claim without the prior consent of the indemnifying Party; and (f) not enter into any binding agreement or arrangement to settle such claim without the prior written consent of the indemnifying Party, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed
- 14.3 In addition to Clause 14.1 hereof, the Customer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless TM, its Affiliates and any of its officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives from and against any loss, damage, expense or cost arising out of or in connection with any breach or violation by the Customer of applicable law or governmental regulation; any claims of whatever nature by third parties with respect to the Service provided to the Customer or the Customer's access or use of the Service; and any administrative or other costs associated with or arising from the Customer's failure to obtain or maintain the necessary approvals, consents, governmental authorizations, licenses and permits required of the Customer in order to access or use the Service.

CLAUSE 15: FORCE MAJUERE

- 15.1 Other than with respect to failure to make payment due hereunder, the Parties to this Agreement shall be excused from fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement if and to the extent that such fulfillment is hindered or impeded by any event of Force Majeure which term refers to any cause which is not reasonably within the control of the Service Provider or the Customer, including, but not limited to any cause arising from Act of God, insurrection or civil disorder or commotion, war, act of terrorism, strike or military operations, national or local emergency, acts or omissions of Government or other competent authority, imposition of government, sanction, embargo or similar action, government requirement, civil or military authority, act or omission of carriers or suppliers (other than the parties themselves) natural disaster including fire, lightning, flood, earthquake inclement weather, power failure, cable cut, explosion, industrial action, criminal damage or destruction to equipment of the Service Provider or disruption to any network service of the Service Provider caused by any software virus, worms, the inability of any equipment belonging to the Service Provider to operate optimally due to any unauthorized action such as spamming, sabotage acts, hacking attacks or omissions of person or bodies for whom the Service Provider has no control or any other cause whether similar or dissimilar outside the Service Provider's control.
- 15.2 In the event of Force Majeure situation which hinders the Customer or the Service Provider in the discharge of its respective obligations under this Agreement, the Party claiming to be affected thereby shall promptly notify the other Party giving full particulars thereof and shall use its best endeavours to remedy the situation and the Parties shall consult each other with respect to the appropriate measures to be taken.
- 15.3 The performance of any obligation or obligations suspended while Force Majeure is operative shall be resumed as soon as such Force Majeure event ceases. Any loss or damage or delays in, or failure of performance by either Party hereto shall not constitute default hereunder or give rise to any claims for damages or loss of anticipated profits, if and to the extent that such loss, damage, delay or failure is caused by Force Majeure.
- 15.4 If the event of Force Majeure persists for a period of more than sixty (60) days, then either Party may give to the other Party a notice of termination of this Agreement. In this event, termination shall take effect seven (7) days after the receipt of such notice of termination.

CLAUSE 16: GOVERNING LAW & JURISDICTION

- 16.1 This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Malaysia and no suit or other proceeding relating to this Agreement shall be brought or filed in any court other than a court of competent jurisdiction in Malaysia, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all suits or proceedings arising out of this Agreement.

CLAUSE 17: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 17.1 Each Party shall retain all rights, title and interest in any Intellectual Property and all materials, facilities, equipment, and other assets provided by such Party pursuant to this Agreement. No Party will have any rights to any Intellectual Property or materials, facilities, equipment, or other assets provided by the other Party hereunder except as specifically provided in this Agreement.
- 17.2 In the event of any third party claims for infringement of such third party's Intellectual Property rights, the Service Provider shall defend and hold the Customer harmless from and against any such claim/action and shall pay all costs, damages, liabilities and all related expenses, that a court may finally award or as may be agreed in an out of court settlement.
